COPY OF CABLE

November 22, 1963

His Excellency Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States,
Washington

I am stunned with grief at the tragic blow which has afflicted the United States and all humanity.

In my own name and that of my people I express my profound condolences to the late President's family, to the American people, and to the freedom-loving world.

Zalman Shazar,
President of Israel